AN ACT

For the relief of Chief Warrant Officer Stanley L. Harney.

August 4, 1964
[H. R. 9199]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Chief Warrant Officer Stanley L. Harney, United States Marine Corps, retired, of Jacksonville, Florida, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $1,453.58, representing the overpayments of retainer and retired pay made to him because of administrative error for the period beginning on October 1, 1949, and ending on September 30, 1963. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Chief Warrant Officer Stanley L. Harney, the amount certified to him by the Secretary of the Navy as the aggregate amount paid to the United States by the said Chief Warrant Officer Stanley L. Harney, or withheld by the United States from amounts due him, on account of the liability referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 4, 1964.

AN ACT

For the relief of Anne S. Henkel.

August 4, 1964
[H. R. 9764]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Anne S. Henkel of Portsmouth, Virginia, is relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $533.12, representing an overpayment of salary paid to her in 1960, 1961, 1962, and 1963 by the Department of the Navy as a result of an erroneous calculation of her appropriate salary at the time of a demotion effective December 25, 1960, because of a reduction in force. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Anne S. Henkel.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Anne S. Henkel an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by her or withheld from sums otherwise due her, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated by section 2 of this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 4, 1964.

AN ACT

For the relief of Witold A. Lanowski.

Witold A.
Lanowski.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Witold A. Lanowski, of Surrey, England, the sum of $4,000 in full settlement of his claims for extraordinary services rendered the United States Army Air Force during World War II. The said Witold A. Lanowski flew seventy-nine combat operational missions for the Army Air Corps in Europe while attached to the Sixty-first Fighter Squadron during that period, shot down four German fighter planes, and was decorated by the Army Air Corps with the Air Medal, ten oak leaf clusters in lieu of the Air Medal, and with the Distinguished Flying Cross; however, no compensation has been paid him by the United States or by any other nation for such services, and his application for a commission in the United States Armed Forces was denied on July 14, 1945, by the fourteenth endorsement on such application, on the ground that his services were no longer needed by the United States: Provided, That no part of the amount paid under this Act shall be paid to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 7, 1964.
